

We appreciate you!!

The HCBFFA would like to show all our associate members how much you are appreciated. We want to give you the opportunity to share a little about your company in an exciting and possibly lucrative way.

We will have tables for your displays and materials around the room at our next luncheon on November 16, 2011.

We also want you to sign up and give us your best sales pitch.

Each associate member who participates will be given 2 minutes to promote their company.

You can do a skit, bring props, dress crazy, whatever it takes to make your company memorable.

The members in attendance will vote on the best presentation.

AND the winner will receive a coveted prize.
